

Dear Editor,
For immediate release:

Allianz4Good spreads Hari Raya joy

Kuala Lumpur, 7 June 2023 – Allianz Malaysia Berhad Group (Allianz Malaysia) – via its corporate social responsibility arm, Allianz4Good, organised a series of charity programs to give back to the community recently.

Among the initiatives launched was the delivery of one month's worth of groceries to nine organisations comprising of welfare homes, orphanages, and centers for persons with disabilities around Klang Valley and Ipoh, Perak, between 27 March to 14 April. Allianz4Good also collaborated with three social organisations, namely Persatuan Buku Jalan Chow Kit, Pertubuhan Wanita Berdaya (Women of Will), and Pertubuhan Pendidikan Anak Cahaya Sabah (Cahaya Society), to distribute food and essentials to 800 families in need around Klang Valley, Sandakan and Kedah.

A generous donation amounting to RM10,000 from Allianz Malaysia employees was handed over to the Raudhatul Nurr Jannah welfare home to purchase Raya clothes for 65 children. The home caters to orphans and children from vulnerable backgrounds. On 2 April, with the assistance of Allianz Malaysia volunteers, the 65 youths ranging from 8 to 19 years old were taken to Fashion Rasa Sayang to choose their preferred Raya attire.

In 2022, Allianz Malaysia introduced Allianz4All Untuk Semua (Allianz4All), a product concept that provides financial protections for all Malaysians based on Universal Values that align with Islamic Financial Principles. When policyholders purchase a product under Allianz4All, a percentage of the premiums will be allocated to the Claims Allocation Fund (CAF). In the event of an approved surplus from the (CAF), a portion of this surplus will be donated to a charitable category chosen by the policyholder, ensuring that the protection plan benefits the policyholder and helps to make a difference in society.

Other initiatives launched include a Ramadhan bazaar held at Stadium Shah Alam, Selangor and Stadium Ipoh, Perak where Allianz Malaysia also distributed free bubur lambuk to visitors at the bazaar. This initiative allowed Allianz Malaysia to show our support for the community and spread the love and joy of Ramadhan to the public.

Allianz Malaysia also organised a Raya Celebration on 13 May 2023 for the IDEAS Autism Centre. This organisation caters for autistic children from underprivileged backgrounds.

During the Ramadhan month also, Allianz Malaysia held an online contest on Facebook. Contest winners will celebrate Hari Raya with children from the IDEAS Autism Centre. The initiative was meant to give individuals a chance to give back to marginalised communities.
