Allianz Life extends coverage for critical illness riders

Kuala Lumpur, 15 October 2024 – Allianz Life Insurance Malaysia Berhad (Allianz Life) introduces the Complimentary Multi-Claim Critical Illness (CI) Coverage campaign, which provides customers with a vital safety net not just for their first CI diagnosis but for future diagnoses as well.

For many Malaysians, a critical illness diagnosis can be a life-altering event. What's even more challenging is the possibility of facing multiple diagnoses throughout life. As an insurer, Allianz Life understands the uncertainty and emotional burden that comes with such experiences.

To help ease this burden, the Company now offers coverage that extends beyond a single critical illness claim, ensuring that customers remain protected when they need it most.

"At Allianz Life, we know that one diagnosis is often just the beginning of a long journey," Allianz Life Chief Executive Officer, Charles Ong said.

"Our Complimentary Multi-Claim CI Coverage allows our customers to focus on their recovery without worrying about losing their financial safety net after their first claim. We believe in protecting our customers not just once, but throughout their life's journey."

Unlike conventional CI riders that cease coverage after a full claim is made, Allianz Life's complimentary coverage keeps customers protected against future diagnoses, providing true peace of mind for them and their families.

This enhanced coverage reflects the Company's ongoing commitment to delivering innovative insurance solutions that prioritise the long-term well-being of customers.

The benefits under Complimentary Multi-Claim CI Coverage campaign include:

- Protection for Multiple Diagnoses: Customers can continue to receive financial support for new critical illness diagnoses, even after a full payout of their critical illness rider.
- Up to 320% Total Coverage: When customers purchase Allianz UltimateLink with CI riders like Prime Care+ or HealthCover Plus, they become eligible for complimentary critical illness coverage, offering up to 320% of the insured amount across multiple claims.
- Early and Advanced Stage Payouts:

- a) Prime Care+ offers a 20% payout for Early-Stage CI or Angioplasty and Other Invasive Treatments for Coronary Artery Disease, and up to 300% for Advanced-Stage CI.
- b) HealthCover Plus provides up to 300% coverage for Advanced-Stage CI.
- Claims Can Be Made Until Policy Maturity: Customers have the flexibility to claim multiple times, ensuring that coverage remains intact throughout the policy's term.

To be eligible for the benefits, purchase Allianz UltimateLink with CI riders, Prime Care+ or HealthCover Plus from now until 30 November 2024.

Additionally, Allianz Life wants to reward the customers who take proactive steps towards health security! The Allianz iWant Giveaway allows the customers to stand a chance to win one of three brand-new iPhone 16 devices, alongside 300 RM150 Touch 'n Go eWallet Reload PIN.
