Kuala Lumpur, 5 February 2025 – Allianz Malaysia Berhad (Allianz Malaysia) via its corporate social responsibility (CSR) arm Allianz4Good has provided financial aid benefitting 15 social partners to support their daily essentials and operational costs.

The Company's Year-End Giving initiative – spanning various locations across Malaysia from December 2024 through January 2025 – demonstrates its unwavering commitment to communities in need and to lend a helping hand where it matters the most.

These contributions will help provide essential items such as food, hygiene products, and medical supplies, while also helping to cover operational expenses to ensure the sustainability of these critical programmes.

Head of Allianz4Good, Ng Siew Gek said, "Through our Year-End Giving initiative, we hope to lighten the load for these organisations so they can continue their work of providing care and support to the communities they serve."
